- Meal highlights: Dinner at Gio Ristocantina

DAY 2: ORVIETO TO SIENNA

- An early breakfast allows time to head to the mountain village of Orvieto—you may know the white wine from that region. The Duomo di Orvieto, built during the 13th century, is not much from the outside, but wait until you see the interior! Visit the network of caves that speaks of the city's Etruscan roots. Explore a small museum underground that explains what history is known of the Etruscans.
- Lunch is in Cortona, en route to Sienna, at Ristorante La Logetta, a lovely restaurant with al fresco dining, or inside in its stone-walled dining room. In Sienna, the Hotel Garden is your home for two nights and you'll enjoy dinner at the Salefino Wine & Cuisine restaurant near the hotel.
- *Hotel Garden 4
- Meal highlights: Lunch at Ristorante La Logetta, Dinner at Salefino Wine & Cuisine.

ORVIETO TO SIENNA

DAY 3: SIENNA

SIENNA

DAY 4: FLORENCE

- In the morning, visit nearby Florence, Tuscany's capital and home to the Duomo with its architecturally radical dome designed by Brunelleschi. And, of course, there's the Galleria dell'Accademia where Michelangelo's sculpture, "David," is the centerpiece (don't miss Botticelli's "The Birth of Venus and da Vinci's "Annunciation," as well). There'll be time for wandering (Vivoli for gelato, Ferragamo for shoes and clothing) with lunch at Rivoire. Rudy's favorite library, designed by Leonardo da Vinci, is tucked near the Duomo and is often missed by visitors; you won't miss it.
- Meal highlights: Lunch at Rivoire, Dinner at Il Latini
- Sina Villa Medici 5 or Palazzo Magnani Feroni 5*.*

FLORENCE

DAY 5: FLORENCE TO LUCCA

FLORENCE TO LUCCA

- Overlook Florence (a certain Instagram snap!) and pay a visit to an 11th-century church, the Abbazia di San Minato al Monte, with equally spectacular views. They'll also be time to walk around Boboli Gardens, not far from the Ponte Vecchio. After lunch, head to Pisa to see the tower that is still leaning—since 1372. Check into a lovely, countryside hotel, the Bagni di Pisa in San Giuliano Terme, and head to the village of Lucca, known for its Renaissance walls and broad, cobblestone streets. It's also the hometown of Puccini, and you may enjoy a stroll through the streets once walked by the great opera composer himself followed by a concert performance of some of the works of Puccini and Verdi in the San Giovanni church before dinner at Ristorante Giglio.
- Meal highlights: Dinner at Ristorante Giglio
- *Bagni di Pisa 5

A wide-angle photograph of a coastal town, likely Cinque Terre, built into a steep, rocky cliff. The town is composed of numerous small, colorful houses in shades of yellow, orange, red, and blue, stacked closely together. The cliff face is rugged and grey, with some greenery visible. The town extends down to a rocky shoreline where a few small boats are anchored. The sea is a deep blue, and the sky is clear and bright blue. In the bottom right corner, there is a logo for 'MAXATOURS.COM' featuring a stylized airplane icon.

CINQUE DE TERRE AND SANTA MARGHERITA LIGURE

DAY 6: CINQUE TERRE AND SANTA MARGHERITA LIGURE

- Excelsior Palace Hotel 5 or Hotel Laurin 4

DAY 7: PORTOFINO

- Spend the day by the pool, take a hike to Abbazia di San Fruttuoso, or take a boat ride to Portofino with a visit to Castello Brown and the lovely church of St. Giorgio. You can also enjoy a leisurely ride on the water and visit the other picturesque towns in the area.
- Excelsior Palace Hotel 5 or Hotel Laurin 4
